

Employment Horizons honors Daiichi Sankyo

PARSIPPANY — Daiichi Sankyo Inc., a subsidiary of the global research-based pharmaceutical company based in Parsippany, will be honored as Employment Horizons' "Contractor of the Year" at the Morris County-based organization's 51st Annual Awards Dinner.

The event will be held 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Thursday at the Meadow Wood Manor, 461 Route 10 East in Randolph.

Employment Horizons provides comprehensive employment, training and job placement services for individuals with developmental, mental health and physical challenges.

Gregg Russo, vice president of human resources at Daiichi Sankyo, will serve as the event's honorary chairman.

Each year, Employment Horizons recognizes a local business or corporation that consistently supports the growth and development of people with special needs.

Printing imperfections present during scanning

